CAREGIVERS: THE HEART OF THE COALITION

CAREGIVING A VITAL ROLE

Caregivers are found in every city and town around the world, caring for loved ones of all ages with chronic illnesses or disabilities. Family, friends, or neighbors may care for an aging parent, a sibling with mental illness, or a child or spouse with a disability. Caregivers may care for their loved one full-time, part-time, or long distance.

THE CAREGIVERS COALITION IS BORN

There are an estimated 100,000 caregivers in Bergen County caring for children, adults, or seniors with chronic, disabling health conditions. This number is growing each year.

The Caregivers Coalition of Bergen County was formed in 2008 to help improve the lives of caregivers.

The Coalition is open to anyone concerned about caregiving, including (and especially) caregivers, representatives from non-profit and for-profit organizations, government agencies, faith-based groups, corporations, as well as the community-at-large.

Over 100,000 caregivers in Bergen County care for a parent, a spouse, a child, or a sibling, who is aging, living with a disability, a chronic condition, or mental illness.

THE COALITION IN ACTION

The Coalition works on many fronts to strengthen services, resources, and access to information for caregivers, and reaches out to the public about caregiving issues in a variety of ways.

The Caregiver Coalition is a network of caregiving folk, both informal family caregivers and professional agency staff. Everyone is welcome. We will not share contact information, but we do ask you to share ours with your own personal affiliations and professional networks. Please like us on facebook.

ANNUAL CAREGIVERS CONFERENCE

The Coalition sponsors a free caregiver's conference with a variety of caregiver topics. Exhibits and service providers are also present.
